General Meeting on Zoom — 7p.m. Wednesday, October 14, 2020

Special Meeting for New Members at 6:30p.m.

President's Message by Pete Rockwell

At 6:30 p.m., October 14, we will have a special meeting to greet new members

On Wednesday, October 14, at 6:30p.m., we're going to have a special meeting for people who joined the Club for the first time this year. Long-time members are encouraged to attend this meeting, as well as those who have joined recently. We can all introduce ourselves. After the half-hour new members meeting, our regular general meeting will start at 7 p.m.

The program for our general meeting in October will be an opportunity for our endorsed candidates to let our members know what they can do to help them get elected (phone- or text-banking, etc.).

We've also invited people advocating for the propositions we endorsed (and against the ballot measures we are urging a no vote on) to tell Club members what they can do to help those causes.

If you are working on a campaign for or against one of the state or local propositions, and if the Club has endorsed your position, let me know if you would like to speak. You can email me at pete.rockwell@hotmail.com.

Di's Corner:

Medical update on Club member Charlotte Gunter: Charlotte is still healing and recovering. She still has the physical and occupational therapists coming to her house. Her attitude is excellent.

Sunday, September 6, Andy and I, along with Ronnie Jayne and family members, were at Mount. Sinai Cemetery where we had the unveiling for Herb. It was extremely hot. The temperature was 120 degrees.

We want to thank Tom Camarella, Rick Tuttle, and the Executive Board for adjourning in memory of Herb.

Measure RE	Support

VOTE! NOVEMBER 3, 2020

RECOVER FROM COVID RECESSION
RETAIN ESSENTIAL SERVICES
REINVEST IN CULVER CITY

RECOVER

Culver City cut $25 million from this year's budget because of the COVID-19 recession. Measure RE will raise about $6 million per year to help our City when we need it most.

RESTORE FAIRNESS

Measure RE is a progressive, marginal tax that is only due when property is sold. 70% of real estate transactions won't be affected at all, and the tax won't change for the first $1,499,999 from any sale. Affordable housing will be exempt.

REINVEST

Federal aid accounted for 13% of municipal budgets in 1978. Today that number is 3%. The services closest to us have been starved. We can begin to reinvest in ourselves with Measure RE.

RENEW

Measure RE will help us address our most pressing problems, like homelessness, and significant deferred maintenance in our parks, public buildings, streets, and sidewalks.

An Open Letter to Sheriff Alex Villanueva

Dear Sheriff Villanueva,

(Or may I call you “Alex” as I did when you were an underdog candidate seeking the endorsement of the Culver City Democratic Club?)

Alex! How could you? I write today more in sorrow than in anger. You made me believe in you. I’m not the only one. Any number of democratic clubs, including the Culver City Democratic Club, endorsed you.

You came to speak at our Club, and you said that as Sheriff, “My job is due process for everyone.” That sounded to me like you planned to run the sheriff’s department in ways that protected everyone’s constitutional rights—both those of the sworn officers and those of the civilian population (presumably including journalists!). What part of that did I misunderstand? What happened to that Alex? Can I have him back, please?

You also said that the problem of deputies’ gangs in the department arose out of low morale. That sounded reasonable to me. You said that with your experience as a rank and file deputy, you knew how to repair morale. Since the gang problem very much pre-dates your time in office, I didn’t think you could solve it immediately. But has making the deputies feel that you “have their backs” made them behave any better?

I spoke up for you for a long time. The Los Angeles Times started criticizing your performance before you even took the oath of office which was hardly fair! But I said, it’s OK, the Times is just bitter because they endorsed Alex’s opponent.

Then you hired back staff with “tainted” records, and I said Alex knows those people personally and maybe the Civil Service Commission did not give them due process. You’ll see, I said. Alex believes in “due process for everyone.”

There were complaints about you from the county supervisors, but I took those with a grain of salt. Both you and the sups (also known as “the five little kings”) were duly elected by the people. You each have your realm... reasonable people can disagree... And Alex believes in “due process for everyone.”

But then Dijon Kizee was shot to death by a deputy when he was riding a bicycle while Black, and KCRW reported that days and days went by without the killer even being questioned. In the days that followed, deputies showed up to surround and intimidate peaceful people holding a press conference about that shooting. Journalist Josie Huang from KPCC was arrested roughly and spent hours in jail. Let’s be clear, in a time of global pandemic being arrested by a maskless deputy and spending any amount of time in jail can be a death sentence. And I SAW THE VIDEO. You all-but-said that since she wasn’t from Fox or CNN, the deputies didn’t need to treat her like a journalist because who ever heard of KPCC?

There you lost me. I am done making excuses.

Robert Bonner from the Sheriff’s Civilian Oversight Commission, along with Sheila Keuhl and Mark Ridley-Thomas of the County Board of Supervisors, have called for your resignation. Me? I don’t let you off the hook that easily. I call on you to stay in office and be the Sheriff Alex that you made the democratic clubs believe that you would be. Clean up your act and be the “due process for everyone” sheriff.

Cynthia Hart

Make a Plan, Stan!

by Cynthia Hart

Hi, Voters! Are you getting ready to make your Plan to Vote in the November election? Me too! I've just been reading Greg Palast's new book How Trump Stole 2020 so I have had my consciousness raised about the very large number of things that can possibly go wrong without a plan! Happily, the LA County Registrar has setup a super friendly page on their website this year where you can just follow the little gray boxes and make your checklist!

NOVEMBER 2020 VOTER CHECKLIST

- ☐ Register to vote. Or Re-register if you have moved or changed your name.
- ☐ Verify your Registration. Accidents happen!
- ☐ Sign up for Ballottrax. (Where has this been all my life?) It will let you track when your ballot was mailed, received and counted. They will actually notify you by email, text, or voicemail (your choice)!
- ☐ Receive your ballot (they drop into U.S. Mail on or about October 5th to all registered California voters) and read the directions.
- ☐ Grab a blue or black pen and your Culver City Democratic Club slate card and fill in the bubbles. (Sorry! I know this seems too obvious to say, but Greg Palast says that every election cycle a certain number of votes get tossed because the voter used red ink to make checkmarks!)
- ☐ Decide how to return your ballot – by mail (no need to add postage in California) or to a dropbox (there will be hundreds of these) or in-person at any Vote Center. Remember, even if you choose to vote in person, you should bring your vote by mail ballot with you. As of this writing, the locations of dropboxes and Vote Centers are still to be announced.
- ☐ Sign your official ballot return envelope! Your ballot signature will be compared with your California Driver's License signature.
- ☐ Follow the LA County Registrar's Ballot Return Checklist:

BALLOT RETURN CHECKLIST

- Before you drop off your vote by mail ballot make sure:
 Place your voted ballot card(s) inside the official return envelope
 Securely seal the official return envelope
 Sign and date the back of the official return envelope
☐ Wait patiently for all the votes to be counted.

Preventing a Disrupted Presidential Election and Transition

The following is an excerpt from the report of the Transition Integrity Project:

"In June 2020 the Transition Integrity Project (TIP) convened a bipartisan group of over 100 current and former senior government and campaign leaders and other experts in a series of 2020 election crisis scenario planning exercises. The results of all four table-top exercises were alarming. We assess with a high degree of likelihood that November's elections will be marked by a chaotic legal and political landscape. We also assess that the President Trump is likely to contest the result by both legal and extra-legal means, in an attempt to hold onto power. Recent events, including the President's own unwillingness to commit to abiding by the results of the election, the Attorney General's embrace of the President's groundless electoral fraud claims, and the unprecedented deployment of federal agents to put down leftwing protests, underscore the extreme lengths to which President Trump may be willing to go in order to stay in office.

"In this report, TIP explains the basis for our assessment. Our findings are bolstered by the historical experience of Bush v. Gore (2000) and other U.S. electoral dysfunctions. The closest analogy may be the election of 1876, a time of extreme partisanship and rampant disenfranchisement, where multiple states proffered competing slates of electors, and the election was only resolved through a grand political bargain days before Inauguration—one that traded an end to Reconstruction for electoral peace and resulted in a century of Jim Crow, leaving deep wounds that are far from healed today..."

BIDEN
PRESIDENT

R.I.P. Ruth Bader Ginsburg

September 19, 2020

The City of Culver City will fly flags on city-owned property at half staff to mark the passing of the irreplaceable Ruth Bader Ginsburg. She was a brilliant jurist, a wonderful writer, and a feminist who worked hard to change the world. Her admonition to “[f]ight for the things you care about, but do it in a way that will lead others to join you” certainly resonated with me, and I’m sure will be repeated many times in coming days.

It’s hard to comprehend the likely impact that this sad moment will have on American political discourse and culture over the next two months, and likely well beyond. We are on the precipice of another federal government shutdown, the Senate has failed to act on pandemic relief, and there will be very cynical political calculations about the timing of a new Supreme Court Justice nomination and hearing. All of that will deepen the fractures that we see in news consumption, political culture, and, increasingly, choices about business patronage and social connections.

I don’t have any grand solutions, but I have two recommendations. First, get involved in whatever political campaign inspires you and fight hard for the tomorrow that you want. Do it in a way that makes others want to join you. That’s healthy, and it’s more obviously important today at every level of government than it has been in my lifetime.

Second, take care of your mental health, especially in your news consumption. Some ideas (while you’re not campaigning!):

—Set a schedule for when you will consume news. No more than daily, and no more than 30 minutes per session.

—Connect with friends and loved ones (while observing safe distancing and good hygiene!).

—Exercise.

—Practice mindfulness or meditation.

Finally, shana tova to those who are observing Rosh Hashanah! Let’s all take advantage of the opportunity to turn the page as we begin 5781.

In California, we believe in giving everyone — Black, Latino, Native American, Asian American or Pacific Islander, White, any gender — an equal shot at fair wages, good jobs and quality schools. But the truth is that many people in our communities are currently discriminated against in getting state contracts, employment, pay, and educational opportunities based on who they are or where they come from. But Prop 16 would change all of that — it's the systemic change we need to end discrimination as we know it.

The Equal Opportunity Ban: A Past That Divides Us

California banned equal opportunity programs like affirmative action in 1996 when Republican Governor Pete Wilson and his allies continued to use race as a political wedge and spearheaded the passage of Proposition 209. Since then, the State of California has denied Latinos, Asian Americans and Pacific Islanders, Native Americans, Black Californians, and women valuable opportunities that are proven to reduce discrimination in our schools, workplaces, and communities.

These days women, and women of color in particular, are on the front lines of the COVID-19 response, and contributing leadership in every field, yet White men are overrepresented in positions where money is made and power is exercised.

DID YOU KNOW?

California is one of only 8 states that outlaws policies that promote equal opportunity for all. Proposition 16 will undo that.

The ban on equal opportunity programs is hurting Californians in many other ways too:

- Businesses owned by women and people of color lose $1.1 billion annually in government contracts
- The number of women and Latinos employed by the State of California decreased significantly relative to population growth
- Women still earn only 80 cents for every dollar a man earns on average, and women of color and single moms make less than 60 cents on the dollar for the same work as their White male counterparts
- Black and Latino students admitted to the University of California decreased between 12 and 60 percent depending on the University's location
- Asian American and Pacific Islander admission rates to the University of California have declined

Here's the good news: Proposition 16 would repeal the ban on equal opportunity. California needs to step in and restore balance where Washington won't.

We can stand up for our progressive values and fight the Trump agenda by passing Proposition 16 and restoring equal opportunity.

A simple solution to end discrimination as we know it.

Proposition 16 creates equal opportunities for every California community by:

- » Helping to end wage discrimination against women, especially women of color — which will help close a gender wage gap that only benefits those at the very top
- » Strengthening resources in K-12 schools for communities that need it the most, such as STEM education for girls or career mentorship programs for high school students who are English language learners
- » Ensuring women, especially women of color, have equal access to promotions and leadership positions in business
- » Standing up for working women and people of color, many of whom are on the front lines of COVID-19, and are the first targeted for layoffs
- » Ensuring all California students have equal access to higher education — undergraduate and beyond — so they can build the careers of their dreams, and serve our communities for years to come
